John Brassard, Conservative

Riding: Barrie-Innisfil, Ontario

Preferred language: English

BIO

John Brassard is proud of his record of hard work and accomplishments as Barrie-Innisfil Member of Parliament for the past six years.

John was first elected to Canada's Parliament in 2015 to represent the newly created Barrie-Innisfil riding and was re-elected strongly by Barrie-Innisfil voters in 2019.

Along with his political experience including nine years on Barrie City Council, John's background as co-owner of a sports apparel marketing company with his father has helped him to be a strong advocate for local businesses and the people they employ. Those important skills and experience were more important than ever during the pandemic, as John worked collaboratively with the business community to find solutions to new and difficult challenges.

Prior to entering politics, John was a firefighter for over 30 years and served as an Executive Member of the Markham Professional Firefighters' Association, including a three-year term as President.

Just like thousands of families each year, John and Liane chose to raise their family in Barrie-Innisfil because it's a vibrant and growing community with access to tremendous outdoor activities, a bustling business community and services. He will continue listening to you, working hard for your family, supporting local businesses and bringing your concerns and ideas to Ottawa.

John works hard for the people he represents, and he is looking forward to continuing his role as Barrie-Innisfil's Member of Parliament and strong voice in our Nation's Capital.

Michael Barrett, Conservative

Riding: Leeds-Grenville-Thousand Islands and Rideau Lakes

BIO

Michael Barrett is the Member of Parliament for Leeds-Grenville-Thousand Islands and Rideau Lakes where he was re-elected in the 44th General Election on September 20, 2021.

Michael is the Conservative Shadow Minister for Health for the Official Opposition and Vice-Chair of the Standing Committee on Health. Michael previously served as the Deputy House Leader and Co-Chair of Question Period Planning.

In the previous Parliament, Michael sponsored the Kindness Week Act in the House of Commons and worked with parliamentarians across party lines to get the bill passed into law to designate every third week in February as National Kindness Week in Canada. In the 42nd Parliament, Michael was named the Deputy Shadow Minister for Small Business and Export Promotion as well as a regular member of the Standing Committee on Justice and Human Rights.

During his time as a Member of Parliament, Michael has been a tireless advocate for regional priorities such as improving mobile coverage to rural areas through enhanced digital infrastructure and infrastructure projects including major roads and recreational facilities. He is committed to supporting farmers, working to improve services and care for seniors and veterans, increasing supports for mental health and addiction, and lowering taxes for Canadians.

Before his election to the House of Commons, Michael Barrett served in the Canadian Armed Forces as a Telecommunication Lineman. During his time in the CAF, Michael was posted to CFB Edmonton and participated in domestic operations including at CFS Alert in Canada's High Arctic.

After serving in the Canadian Armed Forces, Michael worked in the private sector as a Human Resources Manager while also serving as a Municipal Councillor in the Township of Edwardsburgh Cardinal. As a Councillor, Michael chaired the Public Works and Environmental Services Committee and sat on the Port of Johnstown Management Board.

Michael resides in Leeds-Grenville with his wife Amanda and their five children: Luke, Ama, Michaela, James, and Nathan.

Jacques Gourde, Conservative

Riding: Lévis-Lotbinière, Québec

Preferred language: French

A fervent nationalist, Jacques Gourde remains an ardent defender of individual freedom and open federalism. He is very proud to represent a riding as diverse and dynamic as Lévis-Lotbinière, and he has been listening to his constituents with determination and commitment for over a decade now.

Jacques Gourde was first elected to the House of Commons in 2006, then re-elected successively for the 2008 and 2011 terms as the member for Lotbinière-Chutes-de-la-Chaudière and in 2015 and 2019, in the same riding, this time renamed Lévis-Lotbinière.

With a degree in agricultural management, Mr. Gourde was previously involved in politics as a member of Parliament, producer and exporter of hay in Saint-Narcisse-de-Beaurivage.

Jacques Gourde was born in St-Narcisse de Lotbinière a little over 50 years ago and remains there. His residence is the family farm. He has been married to Chantale since 1989 and they have five children aged 24 to 31.
